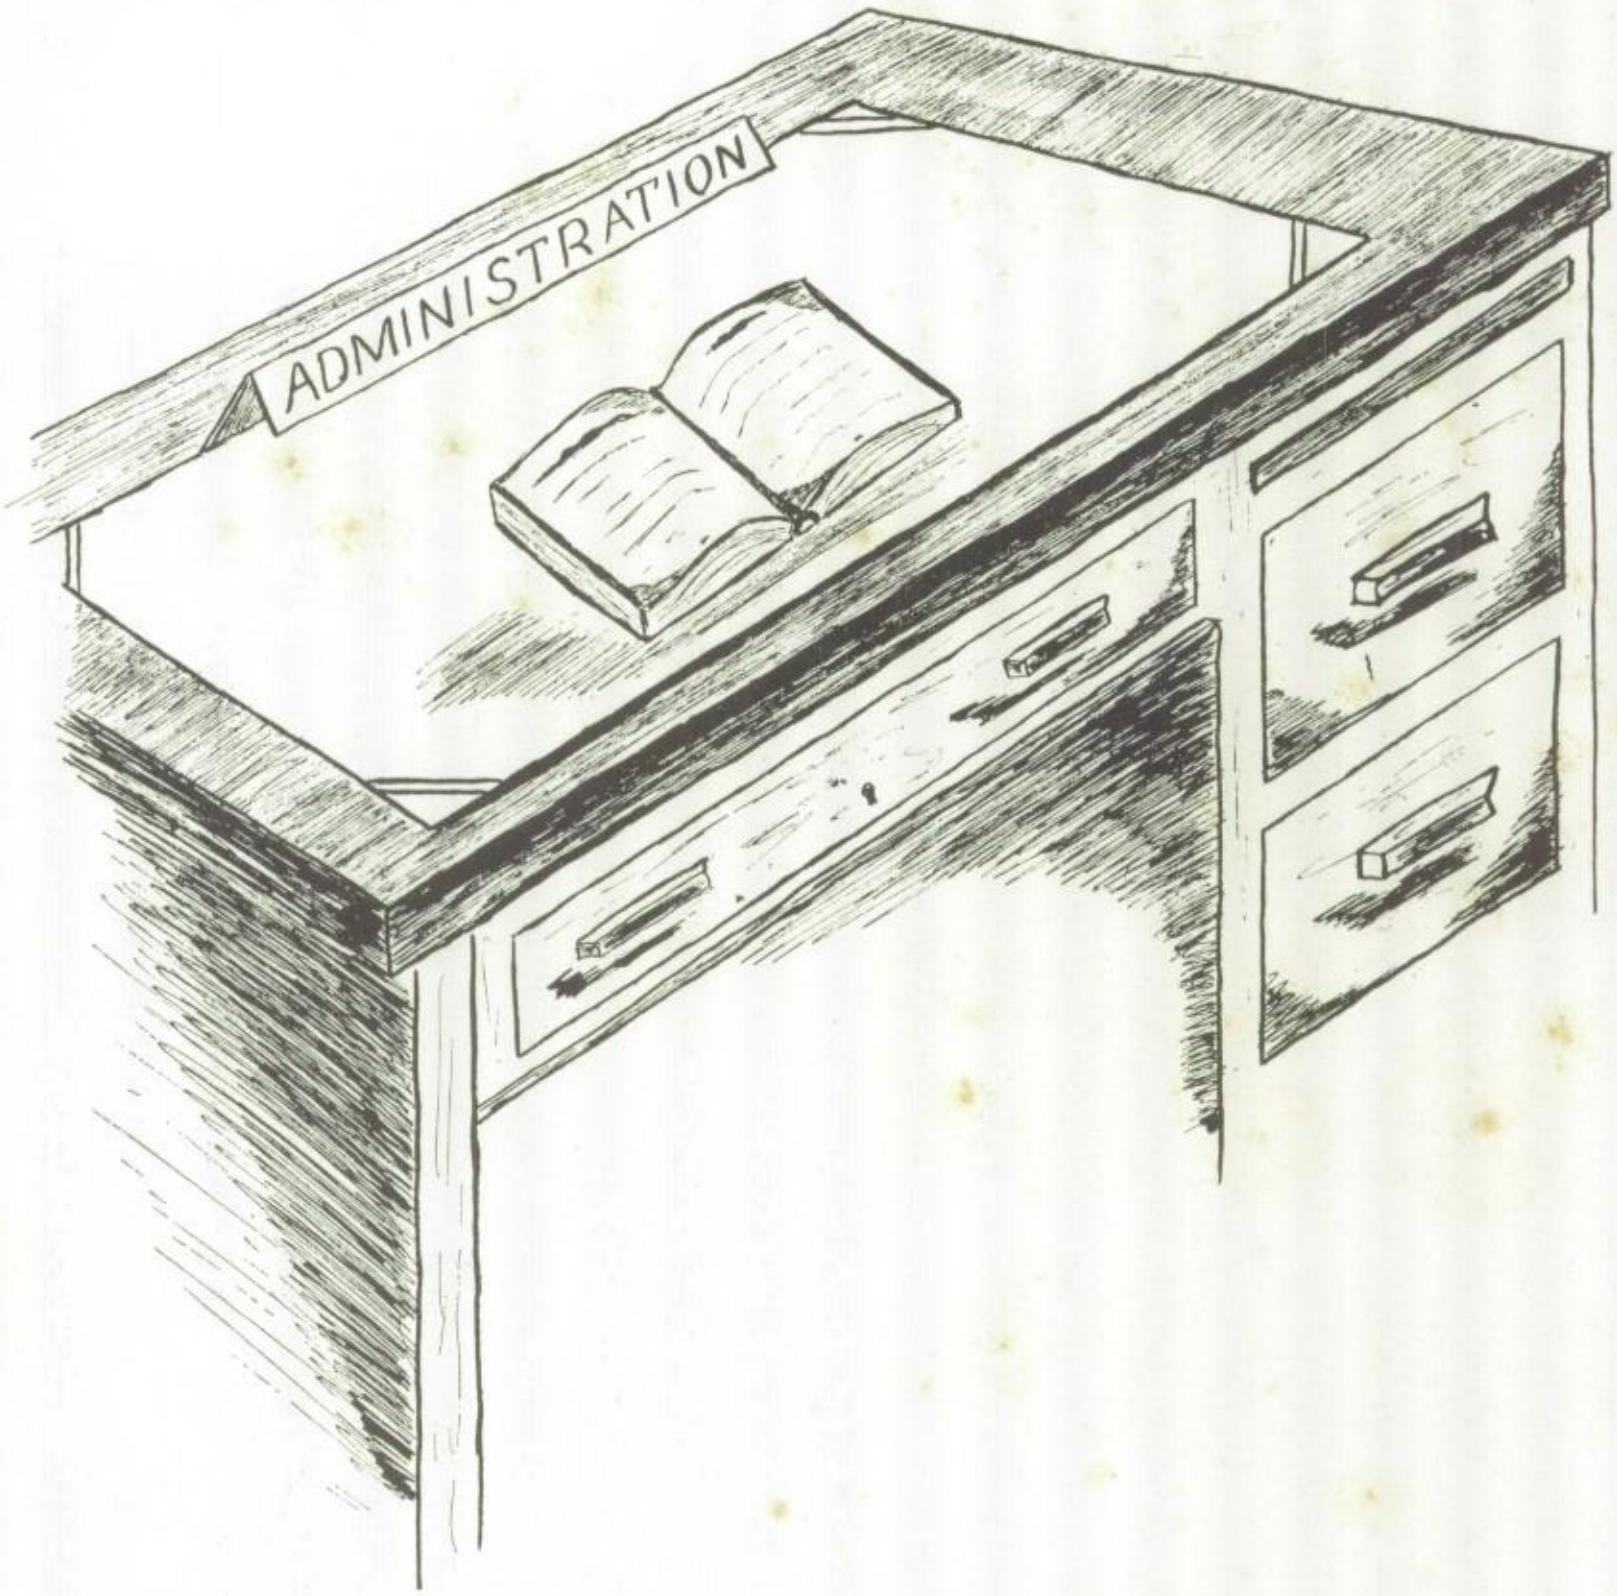
Dedication

Rafe S. Nabors

We, the class of 1955, are happy to dedicate our edition of the Spectator to you, Mr. Nabors, for your sacrifice, your untiring efforts, and your good-natured self. We wish to express our gratitude to you and to let you know how much we admire you.



Administration and Faculty

In 1954-1955 the Administration and Faculty worked under challenging conditions to offer to the students of Dallastown Area High School the opportunities for a good education.

Planning for the new buildings but working meanwhile in five districts to serve a record population, our administrators and faculty gave us their energy, time, and wise guidance.

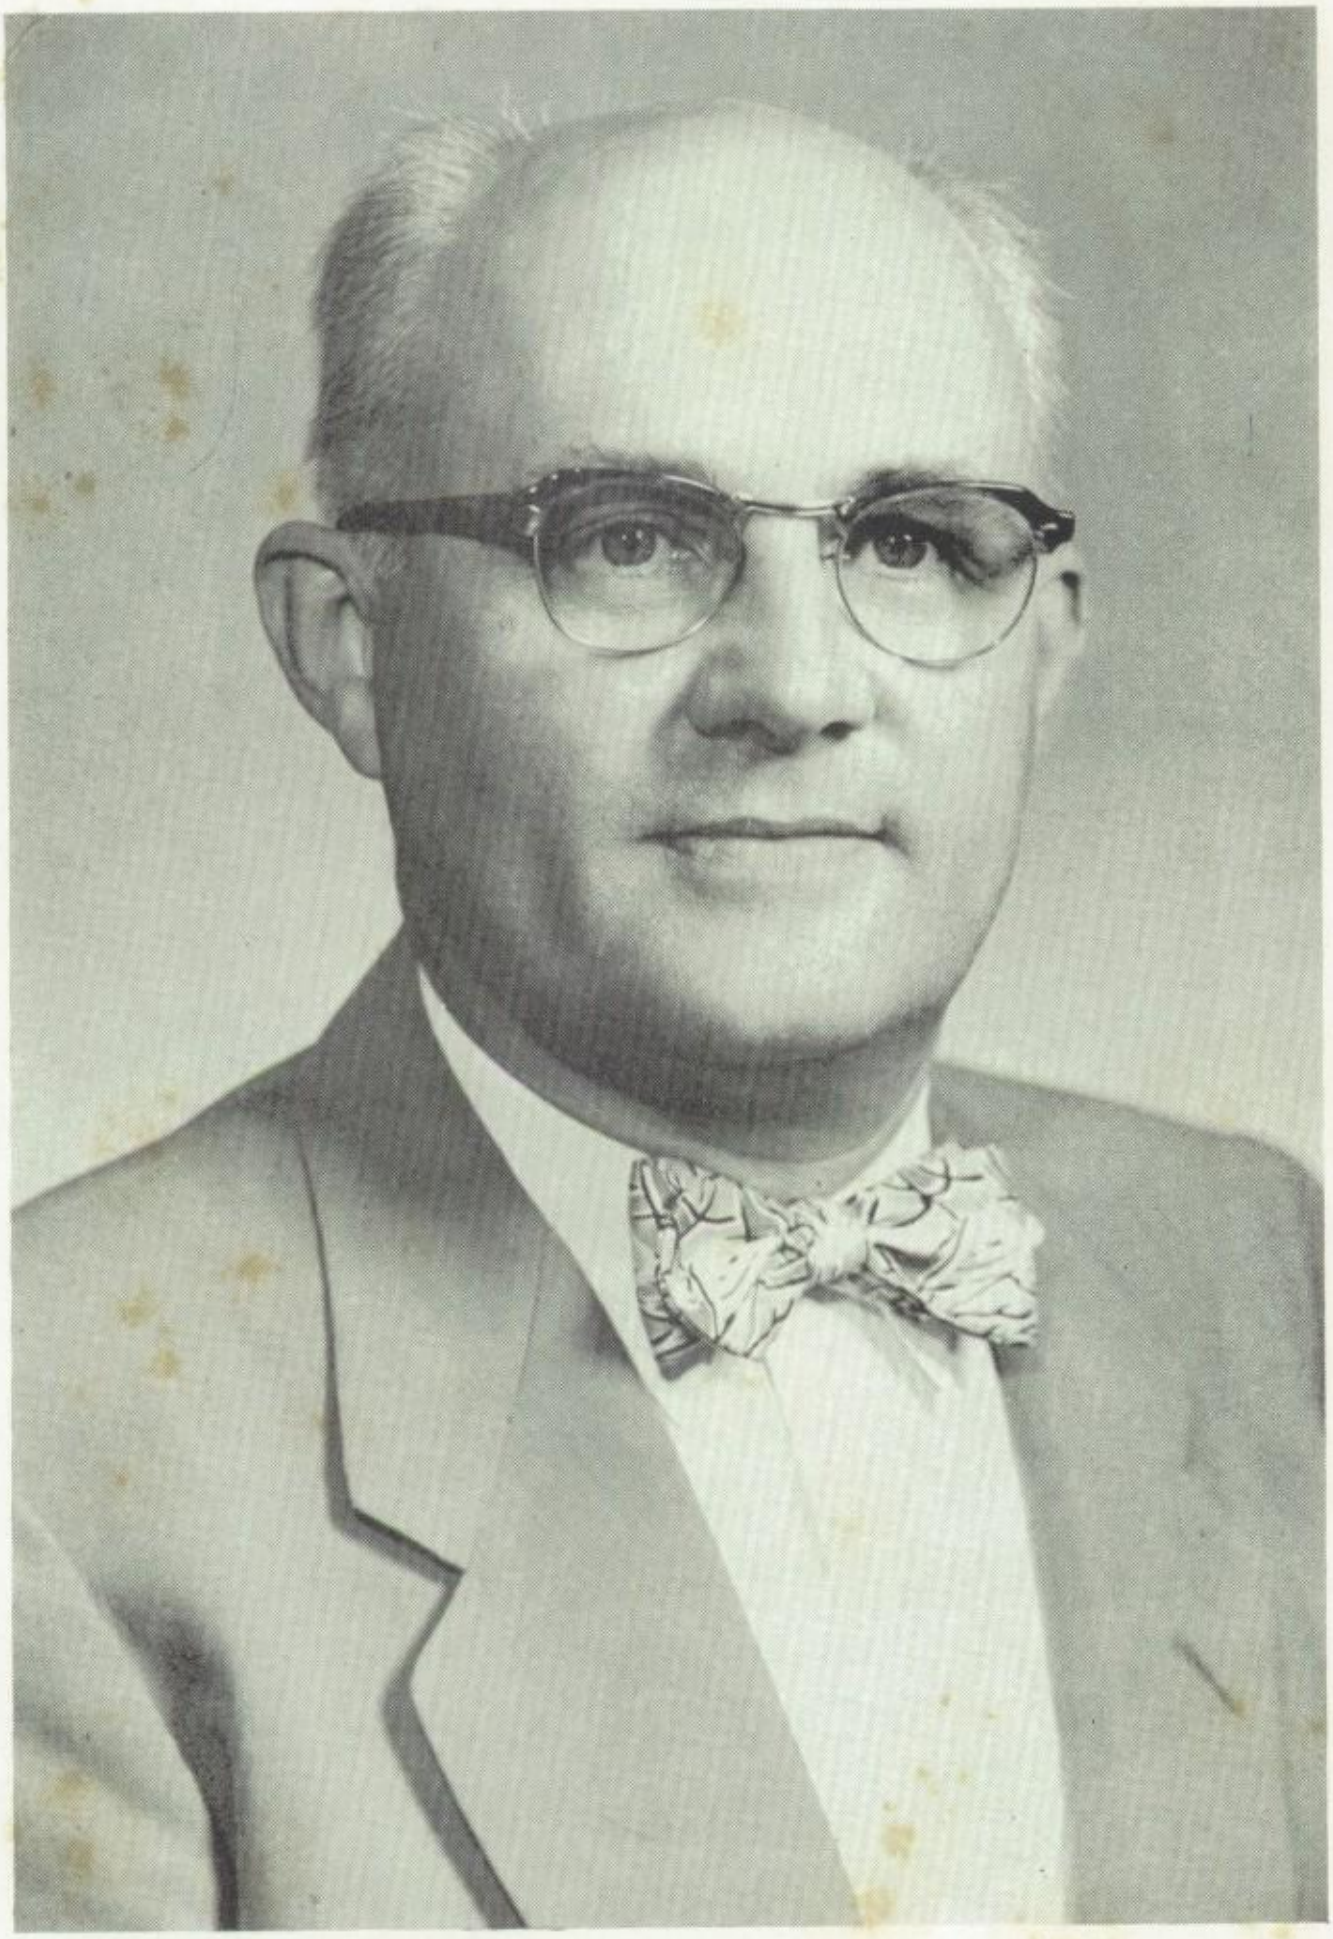
Board of Education

We extend sincere appreciation to the Dallastown Area Board of Education for the many hours the members have labored without thought of personal advantage but only for the improvement of our school.

THE OFFICERS

President ..... Dr. H. Logan Fisher
Vice-president ..... Mr. Lawrence M. Hartman
Secretary ..... Mr. Norman C. Shermeyer
Treasurer ..... Mr. George A. Goodling

Administration



Dr. Harry W. Shenk, Supervising Principal

Members of the Class of 1955:
An unknown poet has said of you,

> "To each is given a bag of tools,
> A shapeless mass and a book of rules,
> And each must make, ere life be flown,
> A stumbling block or a stepping stone."

You have had opportunities to discover the talents in your "bag of tools", the various paths into which you may direct your life's work, and the principles of the "Book of Rules" which should serve as a guide to your actions. May you be successful in molding these discoveries into a life that will truly be a "stepping stone"!

Harry W. Shenk

Administration

Ralph N. McSherry, Principal

The fact that you were here in '55 is verified not only by a coveted diploma but also by the many successful and meritorious projects which you sponsored during your brief stay with us.

For the diploma, we congratulate you heartily. For the many projects, including this commendable volume of the Spectator, we thank you sincerely.

Clair A. Trout, Assistant Principal

To graduate in days like these causes age to envy you, for you are set in a world of opportunity. The greatest heights of human understanding have yet to be scaled and the deepest pits of human misery have yet to be bridged. To you, the Class of '55, the scourge of war, the healing of broken minds and broken bodies is a constant challenge. May good fortune accompany your every effort.

Seniors

To the underclassmen, seniors appear to sit on top of the high school world. But remembering the twelve-year climb up the path of knowledge, the seniors enjoy the envy of those still struggling on the cliffs below.

In Memoriam

CHARLES MORTON KEHM

Charles Morton Kehm, the son of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Kehm, Jr., died July 6, 1952. He is sadly missed and fondly remembered by both his teachers and his classmates as a cheerful boy who loved life, laughter, sports, the out-of-doors, and people.

Celebrating the close of school, we freshmen picnic at Hershey.

Class

In 1951 Princess Elizabeth and the Duke of Edinburgh arrived in Washington, D. C., to visit President Truman, but Dallastown High became the bright spot for eighty pupils enrolled in the freshman class. The class, under the direction of Miss Perry, chose these officers: president, Ronny Marshall; vice-president, Roger Brown; secretary, Norma Jean Krout; and treasurer, Donald Wise. We were represented in student council by Ronny Marshall and Benjamin Hoover. During the year Yvonne Holtzapple was accompanist for the Junior Chorus of the York County Music Festival. We celebrated the close of the first year with a trip to Hershey.

In 1952 we loiter after school keeping company with bus pals.

In 1952 the New York Yankees won their fourth successive World Series and the Dallastown Wildcats failed to become the Laurel Conference football champions. As sophomores we elected these officers: president, Benjamin Hoover; vice-president, George Goodman; secretary, Ruth Ann Arnold; and treasurer, Donald Wise. Elected to student council were Nancy Gohn and Dennis Dehoff. Our adviser was Mr. Nabors. During the year, the pupils were able to discard their lunch boxes for hot meals served in the new cafeteria. We ended the year with a trip to Washington, D. C.

History

In 1953 Dwight Eisenhower became President of the United States. In Dallastown High the juniors elected these officers: president, Ronny Marshall; vice-president, Donald Wise; secretary, Max Stein; and treasurer, Norma Jean Krout. Our representatives in student council were Ruth Ann Arnold, Nancy Gohn, Jerry Weidner, and Dennis Dehoff. Our adviser was Mrs. Schenck. Mrs. Richardson directed us in The Nutt Family, our play, presented in March. After the play we elected a yearbook staff and began work on prom plans. We were proud of our pretty prom at which we entertained the Class of 1954 who were soon to graduate and allow us to become the seniors.

As juniors we are happy that the gym is decorated for prom.

As seniors our boys line up willingly for traditional Chest X-Ray exams.

In 1954 George M. Leader became Governor of Pennsylvania. In Dallastown High elections were also of interest. The seniors chose Donald Wise, president; Charles Vernon, vice-president; Ruth Ann Arnold, secretary; and Norma Jean Krout, treasurer. The student council members were Lorie Snyder, Barry Reachard, Ronny Marshall, and Gerald Germick. Mr. Winemiller was class adviser. Baccalaureate service was held June 5 in the Christ Lutheran Church with Reverend Morris Zumbrun delivering the address. Class Day and Commencement were held June 7 and 8. The speaker for Commencement was Dr. Frederick Miller, president of Lebanon Valley College.

Class Song

Little by little
Our school days have passed
In Dallastown High.
We'll cherish our memories
Of our white and blue
and to thee we'll always be true.

Farewell to schoolmates
From grades one thru twelve and teachers so true.
Our memories grow stronger
As time passes on,
Of our Alma Mater so true.

Music by Yvonne Holtzapple
Words by Earline Diehl

Class Poem

We say farewell, Alma Mater
And our good-by is a lament
Carrying bitter-sweet memories
Of the swift years we have spent.

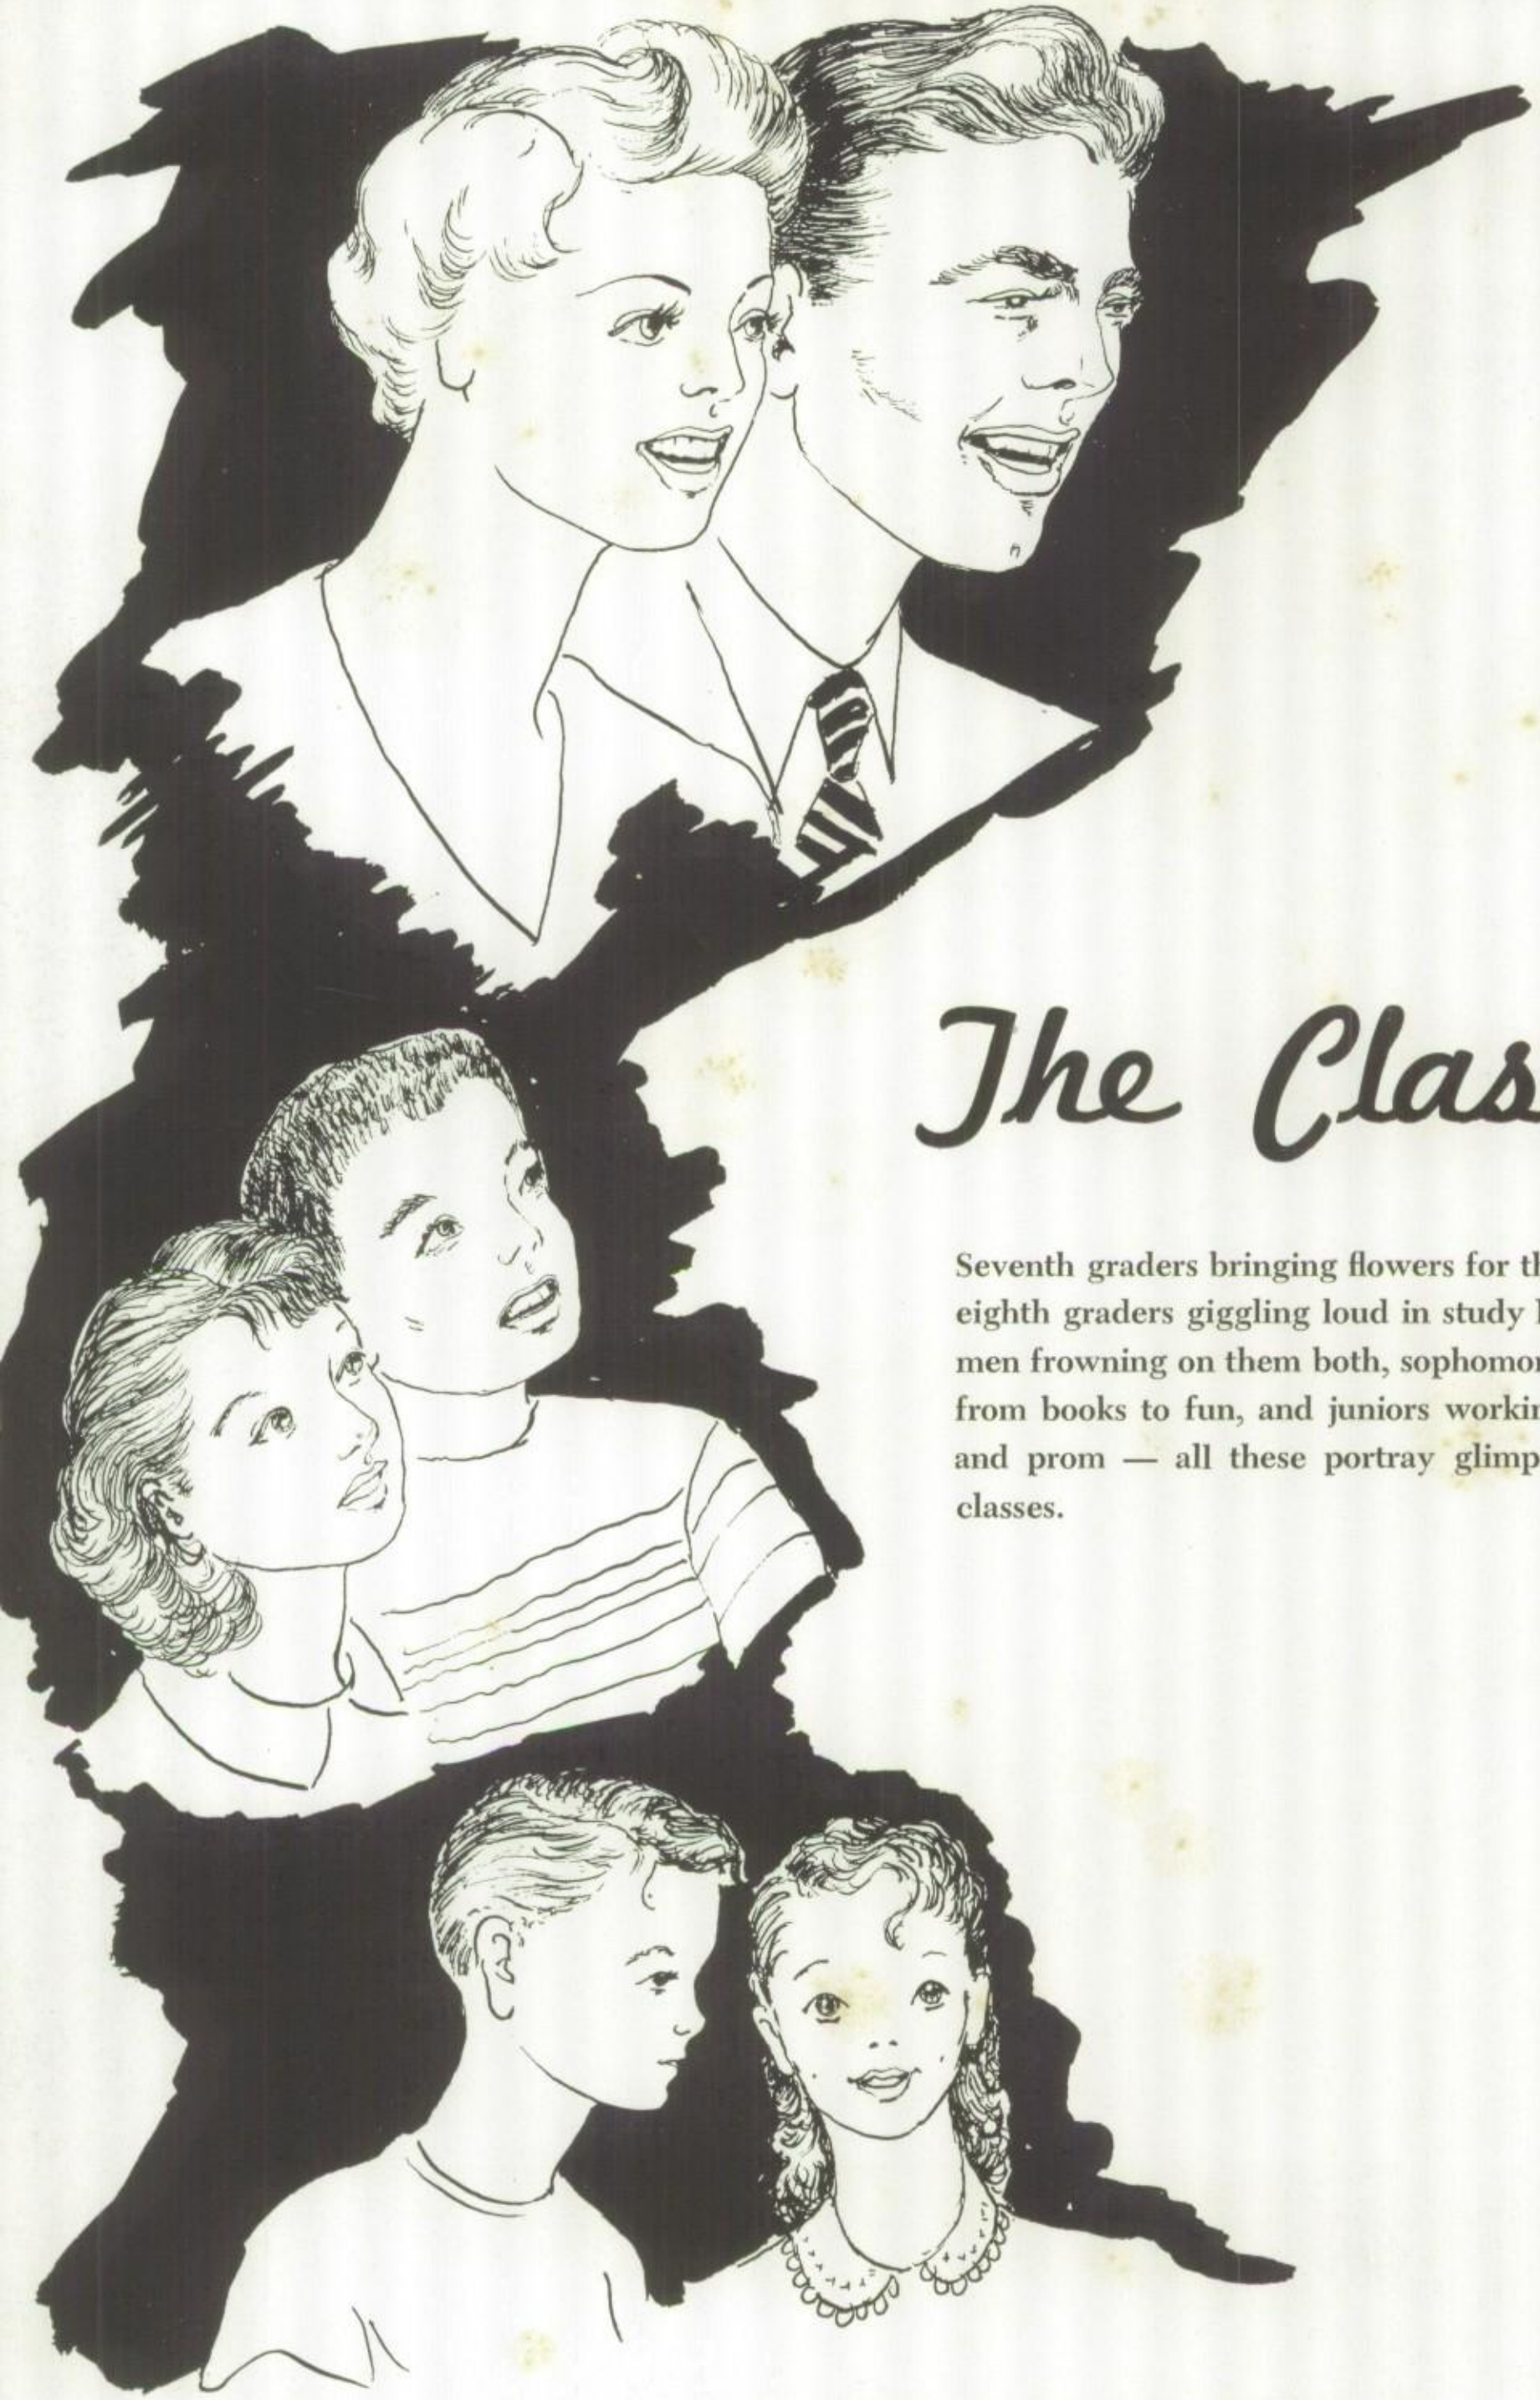
But we will not be mournful
As we set out to take
The challenge of this changing world.
Lives of worth, we'll make.

Lorie Snyder

Class Flower ..... Carnation

Class Colors ..... Maroon and White

Class Motto ..... To strive, to seek, to find and not to yield — Tennyson.



The Classes

Seventh graders bringing flowers for the teacher, eighth graders giggling loud in study hall, freshmen frowning on them both, sophomores turning from books to fun, and juniors working on play and prom — all these portray glimpses of the classes.

ALMA MATER

Upon a pleasant hillside
Stands one we love so true
Our loyalty, Oh High School
To thee, we pledge anew.
Where'er our paths may lead us,
Our praise to thee will sound.
Forever we'll be faithful.
We love thee, our Dallastown,
We love thee, dear Dallastown.

Though lonely and discouraged
Or tried by care and pain,
One thought of thee inspires us
Our courage to regain.
For still thy clinging memories
Within our hearts abound
To bind us to our High School
Forever, dear Dallastown,
We love thee, dear Dallastown.

Organizations

To learn by doing, students join organizations directed by teachers who hope to instruct beyond the realm of the classroom. Student government representatives, journalists, choral groups, band, library, F. H. A. members — all serve to add variety and worth to school days.

Boys at press conference in Spring Grove are reluctant to attend the dance.

Beacon Editorial Staff

To prepare the five issues of the Beacon, the staff wrote and rewrote many stories, composed poems, plotted lay-outs, cut linoleum blocks and tried to "scoop" the daily papers. A personal interview with Mrs. Geroge M. Leader, the governor's wife, was a bright moment for the editor.

Beacon Business Staff

Early in the fall, the business staff pounded the pavements, knocked on doors, waited in offices in search of advertisements for volume twenty-six of the BEACON. Successful advertising and subscription campaigns assured a practical budget. Typists prepared the copy for the printer; others handled the circulation of the 450 copies.

Music

Music — vocal and instrumental, classical and popular — was a vital part of school life from opening assembly until Commencement Day.

Regularly on Thursday and Friday mornings the Band practiced in the gym. The choruses were busy all year preparing for many programs. We remember especially the Night of Music, the Music Department assembly program, and the night when Dallastown was host to the York County Music Festival. Neither will we forget the thrill of seeing our own school band making its first marching appearance at a football game nor the pride on learning that the newly-discovered Trio were winners in the County Forensics. Mr. Joseph Campanella directed each of the music groups.

Trio

Dallastown High has acquired a reputation of presenting an excellent girls' trio in the County Music and Forensic contests. This year was no exception. The girls trio, consisting of three eighth graders, took first place in the York County competition held at Mount Rose Junior High on March 3.

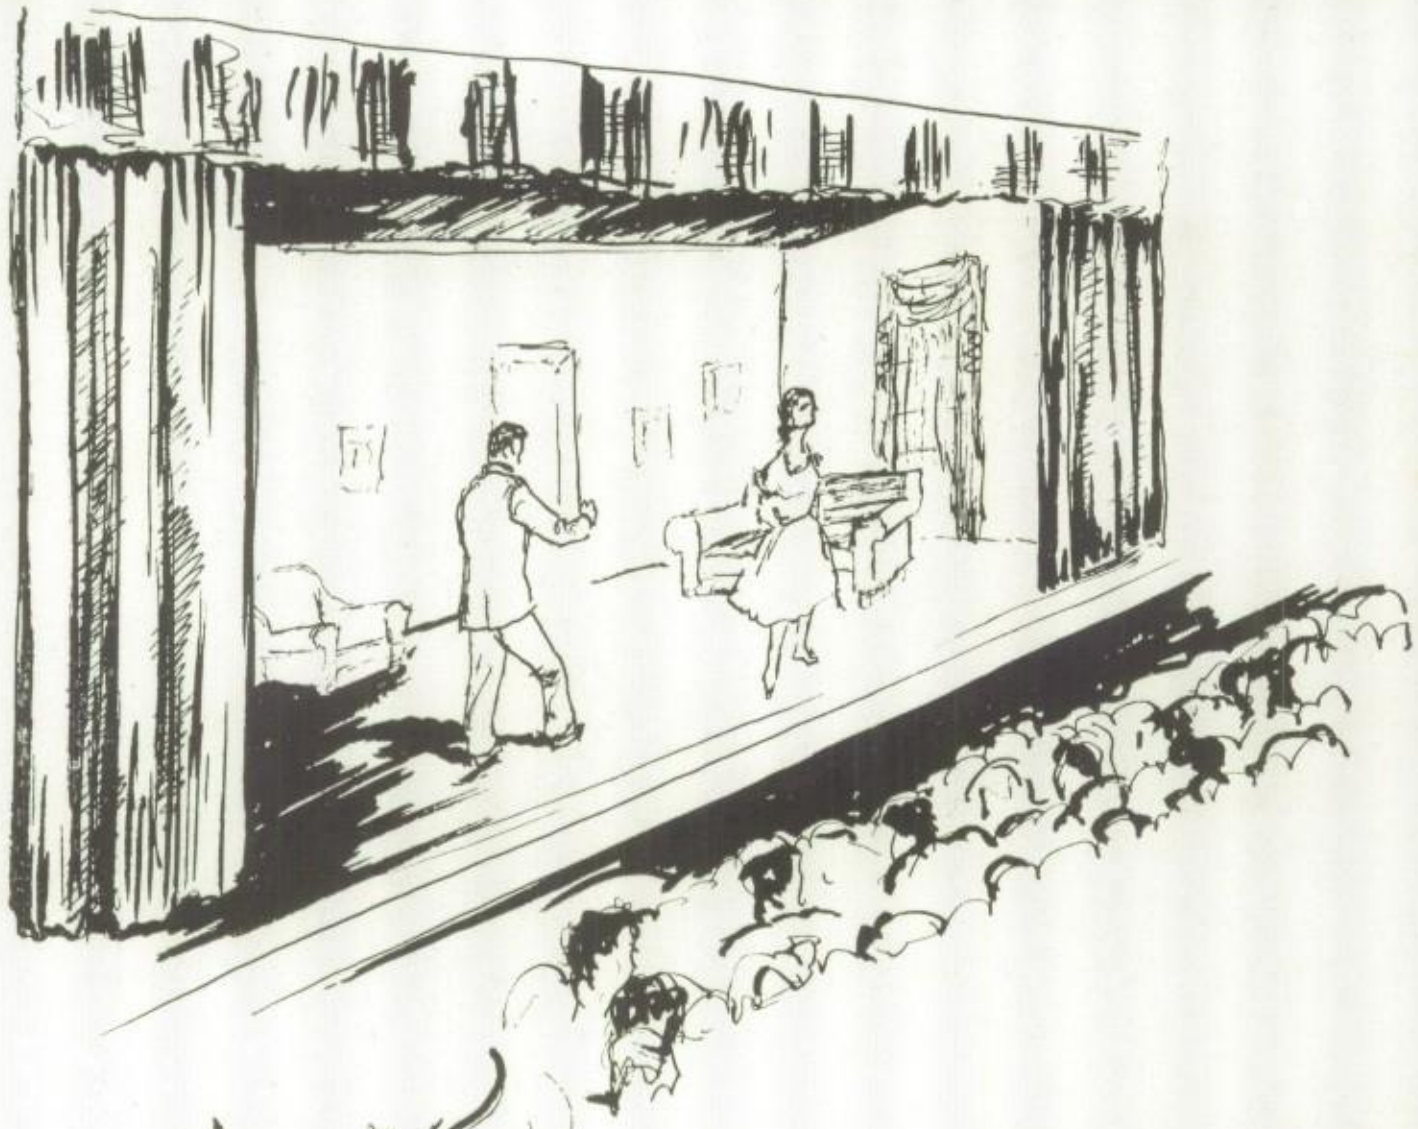
The trio, attractively attired in red dresses, made various appearances in the area and were featured performers at the annual "Night of Music."

Alumni Association

Officers of Alumni who were hostesses at Homecoming festivities are: Mrs. Charles Hartman, treasurer; Miss Lucille Spangler, president; Mrs. Richard Shaffer, secretary.

Alumni gathered to celebrate Homecoming Day on the Saturday of the football game with Susquehannock. The parade through the town and the record crowd at the game were not enough to effect a victory, but the dance in the gym later that evening was fun for all.

Undergraduates gather for refreshments and chatter at intermission of Alumni Dance.



Activities

Memories to treasure grow from school activities. Curtain time when the play begins, delicious May night of the Junior-Senior Prom, assembly period with recess from studies — all are precious times to cherish and recall again and again.

The pet snake is the center of attention.

Mixed emotions.

Waiting for curtain call.

Wake up, Orestus!

In The Nutt Family, Dr. See sold Crestwood, a sanitorium for mental patients to Bea Wise, an agent. Bea sold the place to wealthy Miss Shelton, who soon tired of it and returned it to Miss Wise. When Miss Shelton goes abroad, Dr. Nutt and his family plan to rent Crestwood if a week's trial proves satisfactory.

During the week, Dr. See's patients, thinking that Crestwood is still a sanitorium and that Dr. Nutt is the new doctor, arrive to create hilarious, dramatic confusion.

Pigskin causes trouble.

Valeria scores a strike.

I'm Magoon!

The new maid sweeps invisible carpet.

In Maid to Order by Tom Taggert the coach, Carl Martin, schedules a football rally when Julian Narramore, an actor and old friend of Faith Martin, is to appear in a lecture on Shakespeare. The dual events cause a war between the Athletic and Speech Departments. Faith is caught in the middle, especially when Miss Speare, a professor, accuses her of "carrying on" with Julian. At the height of preparation for a big dinner the maid quits. Merry mix-up follows as five maids each pretend to be the new maid.

Magoon becomes quite eager to find the masquerading maid.

Junior - Senior Prom

"An Evening in Paris" was the theme chosen for the Junior-Senior Prom held the lovely evening of May 21, 1954.
The gym was attractively adorned with sparkling stars and pastel-shaded carnations. Push carts of flowers and quaint lamp posts gave a Parisian effect to the affair. Couples danced under the light of the crystal ball to the dreamy music of the Blue Moon Octet. The highlight of the evening was the crowning of the king and queen, James Wolfe and Anita Roth, chosen by the junior class. Runners up, Dean Wise and Torus Ness served as attendants to the royal pair.

Activities

Glenn Brenneman, Maxine Heindel, Karen Leader, and Robert Hoover spend busy hours working on float to represent Homeroom 16 in the Homecoming parade. They won first prize.

Speaking for democracy, K. Leader, K. Sprenkle, H. Martin, R. Wright, and R. Smith won the cash prizes offered by the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

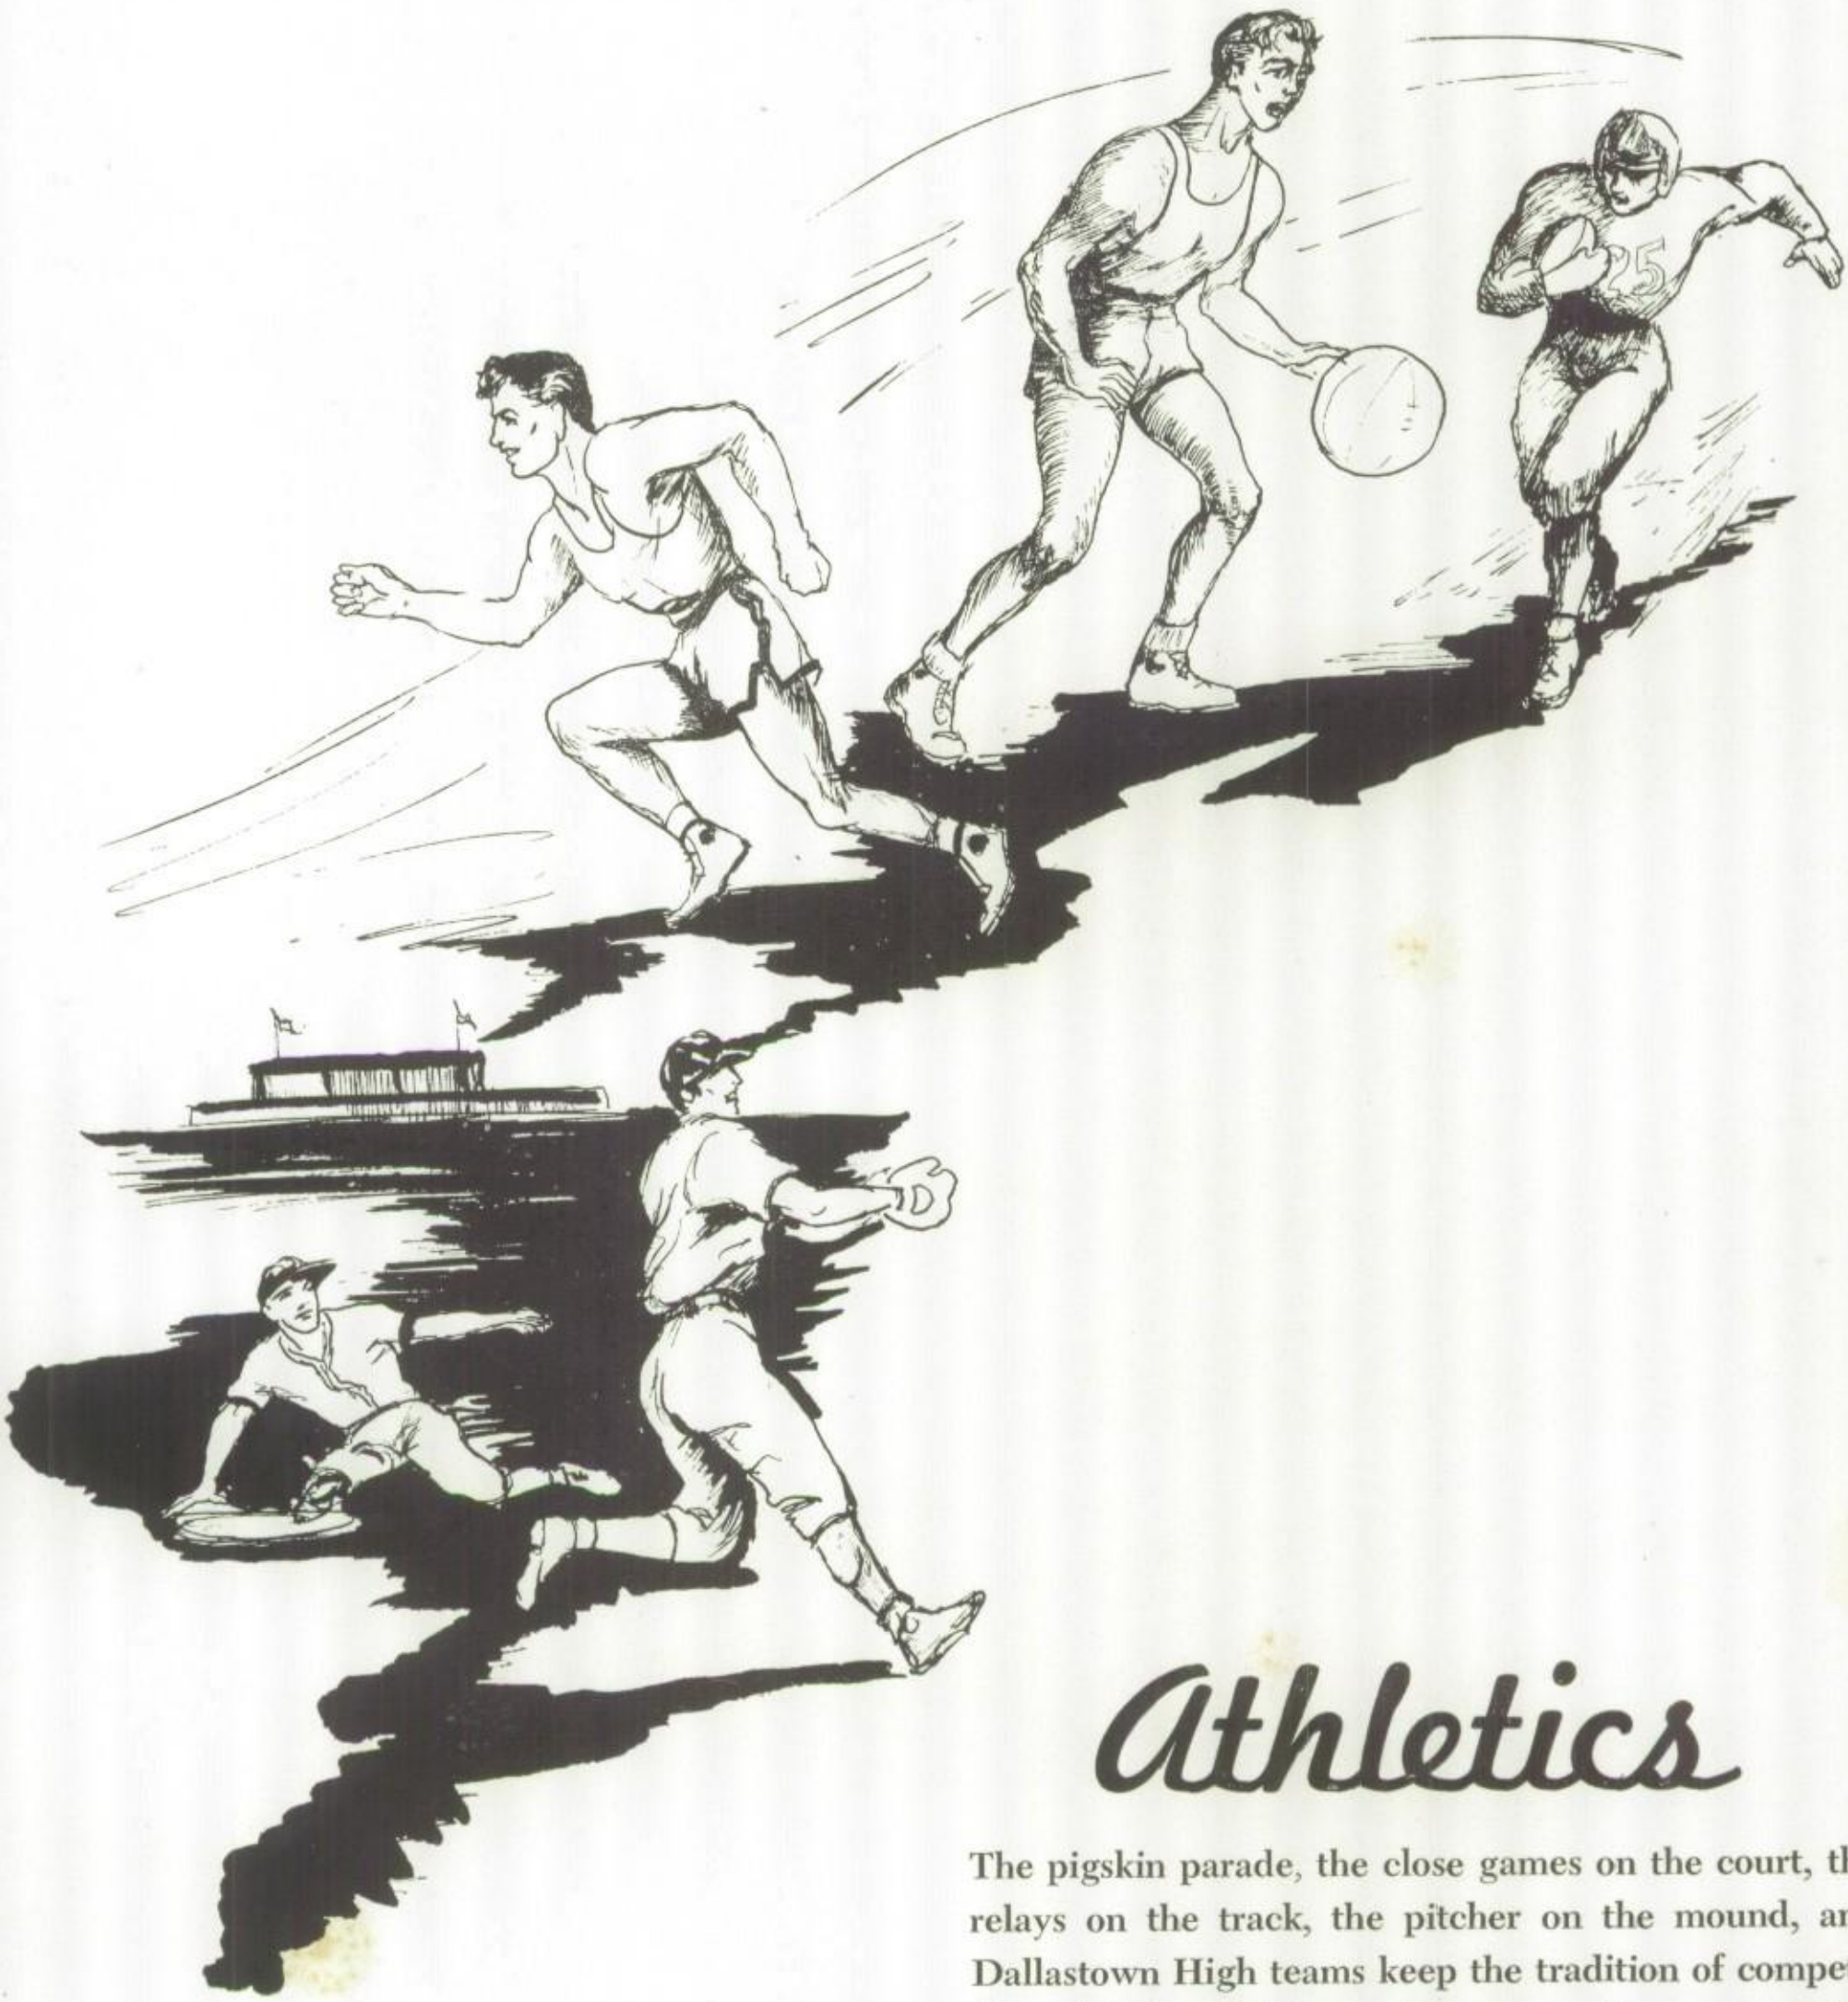
Larry Wynn asks Mr. Thomas' advice on his art project; Mr. Thomas makes major changes.

Activities

"Mr. Kehm, will you please autograph my yearbook?" The annual has just arrived and the fresh books must be autographed in minutes stolen after classes.

Sophomores include a "Truth or Consequence" episode in their assembly program. Ralph Stahl good-naturedly pays the penalty for a wrong answer.

Sounds of industry coming from the shop below often punctuate the silence of the study hall above. W. Romesberg and J. Miller "talk shop" with Mr. Richardson.



Athletics

The pigskin parade, the close games on the court, the relays on the track, the pitcher on the mound, and Dallastown High teams keep the tradition of competitive athletics. Whatever the season, the sport, or the final score, you were there, either playing for or cheering for the Blue and White.

Football

The Wildcats played nine football games this season without a victory. The reason was principally inexperience. Only three lettermen returned as veterans. For the first time Dallastown played Red Lion to begin neighborly rivalry on the gridiron. Six members of the team will graduate this spring: Walter Romesberg, Charles Vernon, Jerry Weidner, Robert Schields, Dale Wise, and Max Stein.

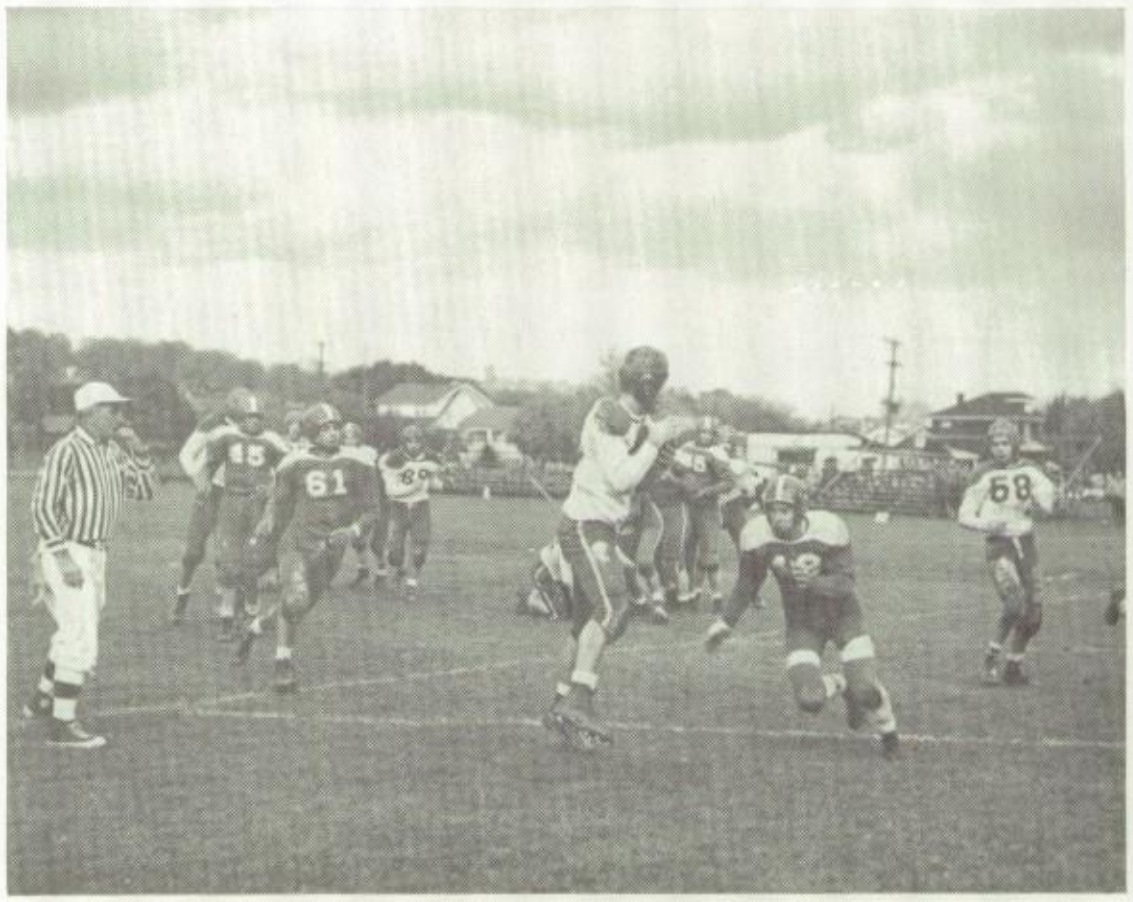
Football Review

A few of the boys get familiar instructions from the coaches, "The plays must be run exact in order to make yardage."

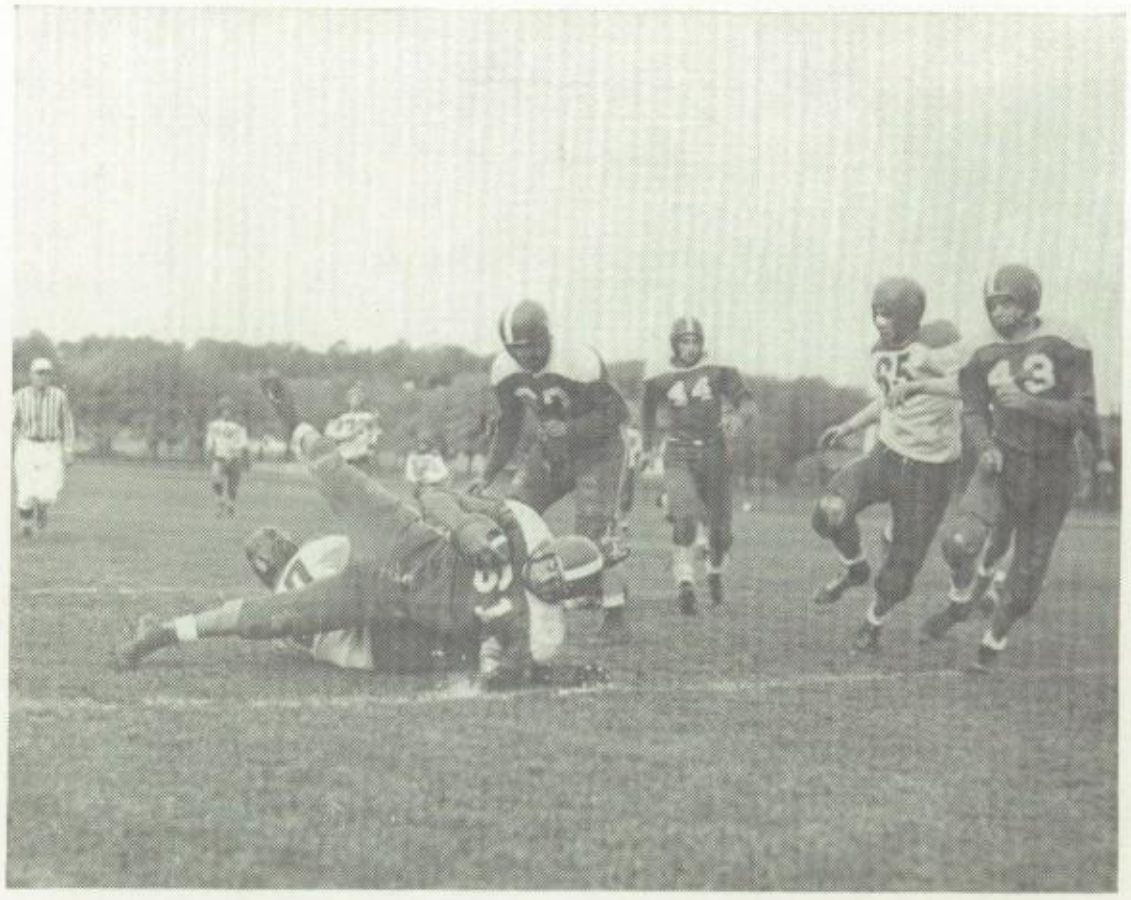


West York completes a touchdown pass; Vernon arrives disappointed.

Hoping to win the Susquehannock game, the boys scrimmage long and hard. Wise is heaving a short pass to Sprenkle.

Football Review

Dehoff goes down in the West York game. Our offense is too late to aid him.



Co-captains, Schields and Weidner, receive awards for their services from Mr. Butcher, representative of the Dallastown Lions Club.

The six seniors enjoy the annual banquet. They played their last game with the D. H. S. football team.

Varsity Basketball

WON 7—LOST 14

The 1954-55 Dallastown High School basketball team under the guidance of Coach Nabors failed to retain the York County Championship which the Wildcats won in the 1953-54 season. Despite the fact that John Work, Robert Schields, and Dale Wise were the only returning lettermen, the boys came up with some very good games. Only a few fortunate points would have meant victory for the home team in several games. The boys played very hard all season and should be commended for their fine work.

Junior High Track

Rain fell on the day of the County Track and Field Meet at Smalls' Athletic Field in York. However, keen competition, great spirit, numerous spectators, and efficient team work made this a memorable day for the junior high girls as they won first place in their division.

Junior High Cheerleaders

This group of eager lassies consists of three eighth graders and two seventh graders. They made their first cheering appearance at the first junior high basketball game. Capably leading their loyal after school crowds, these girls promise that there will be happy cheering days ahead for junior high. One of their booming cheers was—

Blue and White, fight, fight!
Blue and White, fight, fight!
Who fight? We fight!
Blue and White, fight, fight!

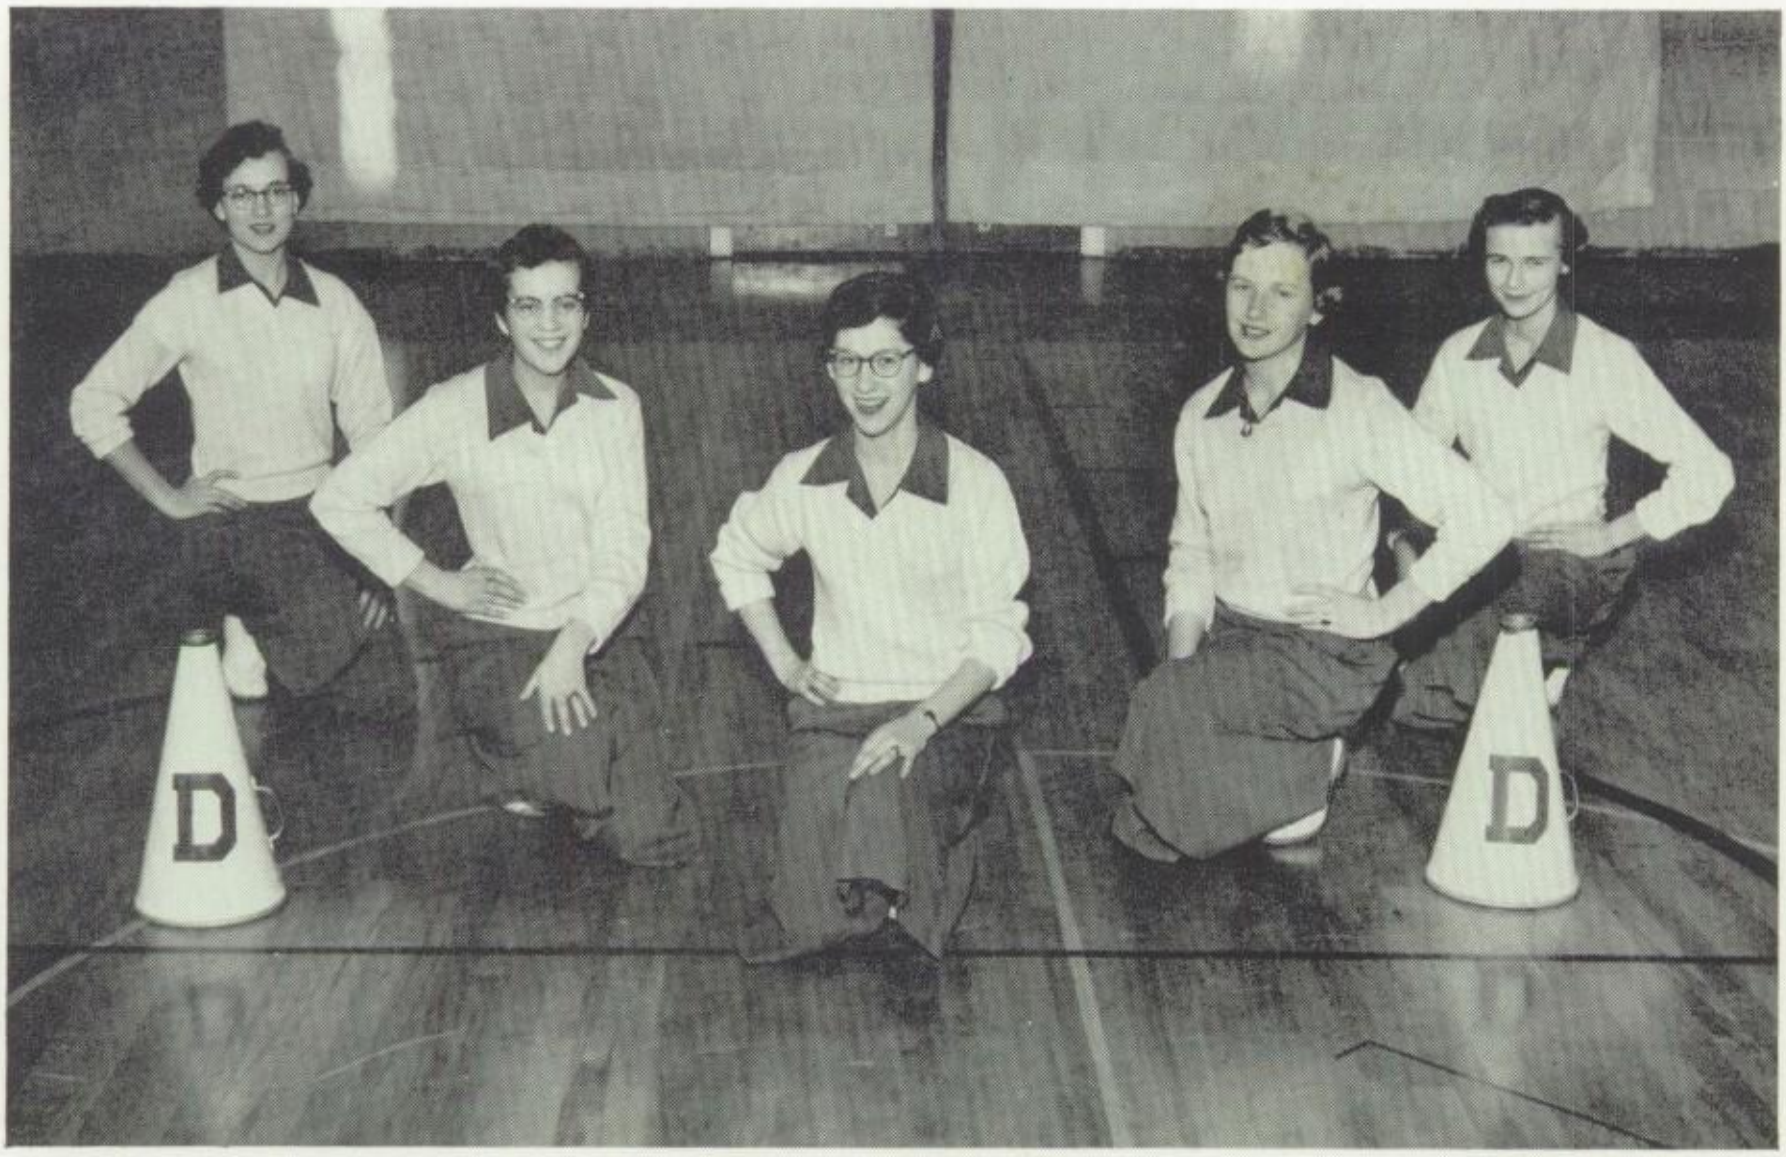
Junior Varsity Cheerleaders

"We have a T-E-A-M that's on the B-E-A-M!" At the junior varsity games this is one of the yells expertly led by the peppy junior varsity cheerleaders. This group of sophomore girls faithfully cheered for their team who had a very successful season. One of the yells often led by them was—

Fight, Wildcats, fight!
Fight, Wildcats, fight!
Fight, Wildcats,
Fight, fight, fight!

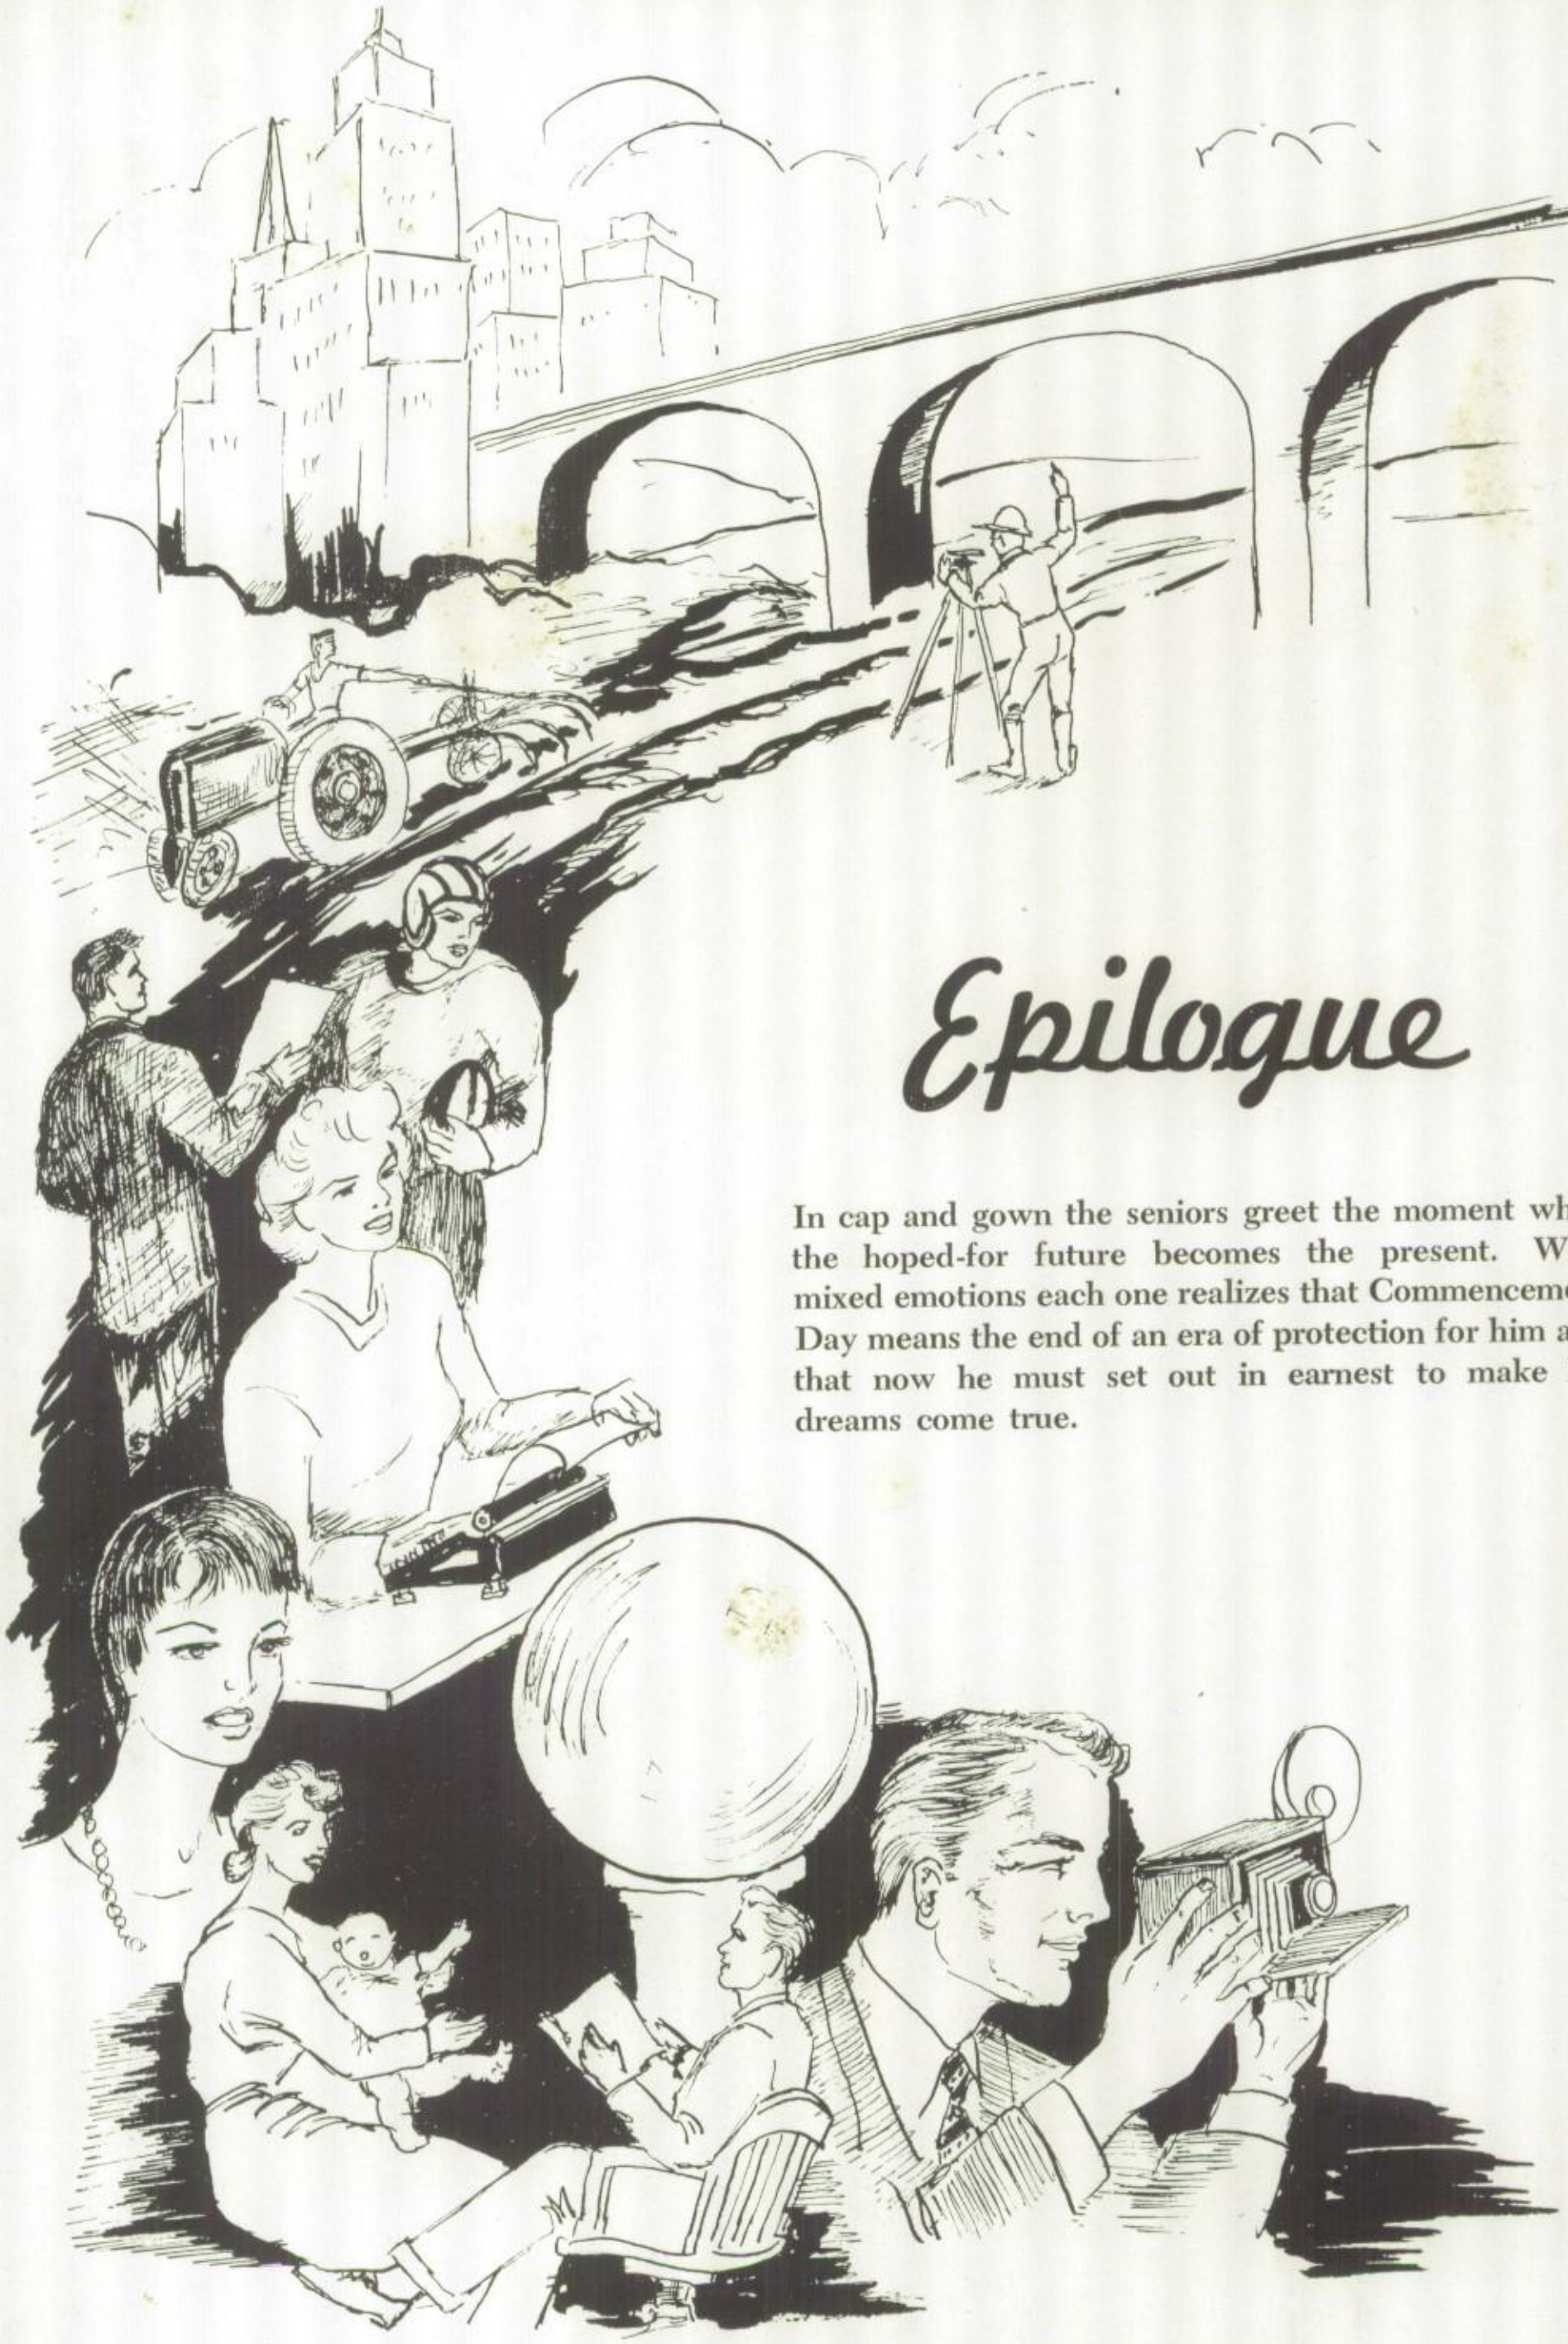


Left to right: Marilyn Geesey, Beth Rojahn, Phyllis Grim, Norma Jean Krout, Barbara Krouse.

Senior High Cheerleaders

These five snappy cheerleaders, attractively attired in their new uniforms loyally supported their team in victory and defeat. This squad, as well as the junior and junior varsity cheerleaders all were coached by Mrs. Schenck. One of their favorite cheers was—

You've got to F-I-G-H-T!
You've got to F-I-G-H-T!
You've got to F-I-G-H-T!
You've got to fight to win!



Epilogue

In cap and gown the seniors greet the moment when the hoped-for future becomes the present. With mixed emotions each one realizes that Commencement Day means the end of an era of protection for him and that now he must set out in earnest to make his dreams come true.
